

Debtors' Fourth Omnibus Motion to Reject Certain Unexpired Leases and Executory Contracts Pursuant to Section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code Nunc Pro Tunc to October 17, 2008 and as of November 30, 2008 for the Coral Springs Lease (the "Rejection Motion").

By the Rejection Motion, the Debtors seek entry of an order authorizing the Debtors to reject certain leases and executory contracts (collectively, the "Contracts") that, in the Debtors' opinion, are either burdensome or unnecessary to their ongoing business operations, retroactive to October 17, 2008 and, in the case of the Coral Springs Lease (as defined below), as of November 30, 2008. The Debtors also request that the relief requested by the Rejection Motion be severable as to each Contract (as defined below), such that the Debtors, in their sole discretion, may modify or withdraw their request to reject any Contract at or prior to the hearing on the Rejection Motion, without prejudicing the relief sought with respect to any other Contract.

The Contracts fall into the following categories: (i) returned or unnecessary office equipment leases; (ii) vacant trailers used as office space; (iii) a subscription for an on-line performance management system; and (iv) an unexpired lease of non-residential real property located at 11575 Heron Bay Boulevard, Coral Springs, Florida (the "Coral Springs Lease"), which relates to office space that the Debtors are vacating.

After reviewing the Contracts, the Debtors have determined that they are not a source of value to the Debtors' future operations or the Debtors' estates. The Debtors estimate that rejection of the Contracts will save the Debtors' estates in excess of $210,000.

With respect to the Coral Springs Lease, the Debtors assert that they (i) are current on their obligations thereunder and will make timely payment of November rent on or about November 1, 2008; and (ii) intend to vacate the property that is the subject of the Coral Springs Lease no later than November 30, 2008.

The Debtors assert that no party would be willing to accept assignment of any of the Contracts, despite their diligent efforts, because (i) the current downturn in the economy, (ii) the high rate of depreciation of computer equipment, (iii) the fact that much of the equipment has already been returned, and (iv) there is only one month remaining on the term of the Coral Springs Lease. Accordingly, the Debtors have concluded that the Contracts are not necessary for the Debtors' successful reorganization and burdensome and, therefore, rejection of the Contracts is in the best interest of the Debtors and their estates.
